

The Oriental Mission Church Youth Pastor, Part Time

Education Department Mission:

God called us, everyone, to love God and others. Therefore, The Oriental Mission Church Education Department exists to connect students and families to God and others. We do this through empowering and embracing individual's self, others, and God. Also, we do it by equipping families and students to be a witness to one's location. Learning and growing in faith needs to put into an action to bring glory to God.
